All Saints

So the end of October swiftly becomes early November. We go from pumpkins and scary faces to saints and virtues. Important though to remember that most saints are not really aware they are saints. They masquerade as people next door and the kind folk in our streets. Even the ones we formally know as saints wouldn't recognise themselves as this. Most of them wrestled with God and with their place in the world. Most of them carried heavy burdens and suffered some heartache or other. Yet the wonderful Julian of Norwich, in the midst of the heaviness of the plague, could assert so very strongly, "All will be well, All will be well, All manner of things shall be well". So when our hearts ache, we do well to remember all those faithful ones who have gone before us. The Church often remembers the dear folk who have gone before us in the "Communion of the Saints". For some churches this is a time to remember those we have lost in the preceding year and to pray for those who grieve this loss. Some have a special service to commemorate this and to invite all those who have approached the church to conduct funerals throughout the year. It is a time to remember and appreciate the influence on our lives of all those who go before us. We praise God for the saints and the legacy they leave us.

(If you would like to know where you can find just such a remembrance service contact Wendy).

CoCo Report

Hello everyone, we have some wonderful news for you this report. We have our first open meeting on Saturday 14th November, so please come along, see how we operate, note what a wonderful time we have together, and more importantly have your say about important issues. The meeting starts at 9:30 a.m. at the Barford Hall. Come and sample a wonderful morning tea from the great cooks who live around the Partnership. Thank you to all the fantastic suppliers for our wonderful morning teas this year.

CoCo Elections

There is also the opportunity for you to become part of the wonderful Co-ordinating Council

(CoCo), we have all had a memorable time this year and you can nominate yourself to be part of this great group. You can lead the group through some very important decisions by nominating for a position of Chairperson, Assistant Chairperson, Treasurer, Secretary, Minute Secretary or Minute Taker at the meetings, all very important roles that give you a great understanding of what's happening throughout the Macedon Ranges Partnership. There are also the wonderful sub-committees you can be a part of which helps form what the Partnership works on. These include Manse, Finance, Newsletter, Website, Minister Liaison, Social, Social Justice, or preaching committees, and you may start some other ones. There is also the opportunity to be involved as a member of CoCo itself, the team this year has really enjoyed their time and met wonderful people from all the other congregations and made some very important decisions. So please give this some thought, are you being called to be part of CoCo? If so fill in a nomination form by next meeting and, if you can't come, hand it to one of your representatives.

Wendy's Report

Snippets from Wendy's report to CoCo. It has been a wonderful month of changing weather and settling in and getting to know people and the surrounding area. I attended the community walk in support of suicide prevention and then went on to Lancefield to share in the service with them. I have been to Mia Mia and Sutton Grange to conduct worship, and to Romsey to bless the animals. Sunday afternoons have seen our open afternoon (which was a lovely time of relaxing together) a vegetarian lunch (with MRVEG and the sustainability group) and visiting in Melbourne hospitals. I also met with Bronwyn and Robert around some new possibilities and initiatives for transforming encounters within our communities. I have enjoyed visiting in the aged care facilities. I also conducted a funeral at Romsey this week. I have met with many of our wonderful congregation members in a variety of locations. I also met with Barb Davis at Gisborne Secondary College and with the chaplain from Victoria Police who is looking to have a police chaplain in the area. Lunch with Tylden UCAF was a highlight and I have attended the Thistle Club and the Mt Macedon Elders meeting. I popped in to Riddells Creek Craft group and the Mt Macedon Men's Group. The hospitality has been outstanding. I also met up with the Kyneton Ministers group.

This week saw the first of Woodend's fortnightly worship services over a Monday evening meal. This is held at the Manse and it was really enjoyable and quite special to be creating flexible worship around the table. I am on the last big essay for my Masters degree (on Church and Community) and I am working hard to complete this. I have my valedictory soon although graduation isn't until next March. I had a session of supervision this week and am feeling well supported. My thanks for all your efforts towards serving our Macedon Ranges community in partnership together.

Wendy finds that people contacting her as needs arise is working well. Robert Renton encouraged congregations to take the initiative to engage with ministers, and alert them to needs in their communities. As the Macedon Ranges Partnership is so large this will be the only way that the project will work, and ministers will be able to work where they are required to meet the needs of all congregations.

Judy undertakes pastoral care and attends meetings on Thursday and Friday. Judy has made a lot of home visits. She is now also taking services on Sunday.

2nd Minister

The Joint Nominating Committee has also found our second minister, who will begin with us on 1st February. Rev Peter Cannon comes from Sunbury and will take on the role of Resource Minister. They are searching very hard for the last minister who will fill our team of Ministers for the Partnership in the role of Regeneration Pastoral Care Minister.

Total Fire Ban Days

CoCo has made the decision that any church meetings or activities being held on days of Total Fire Ban in the Extreme or Code Red days will be cancelled within the Macedon Ranges Partnership. This will apply to both the Central and North Central fire districts.

Kyneton Manse

The Kyneton Manse sewerage works have been completed. They can now apply for the title. Quotes are being gained to erect a paling fence around the manse in line with the heritage overlay. Discussion was held about what happens to the proceeds from the sale of property.

Website & Letterhead

We have received approval for an application to gain a Simpson Bequest from Presbytery to help with employing a local graphic designer for our website.

A letterhead has now been finalised for the Partnership after much work from a couple of our CoCo members. A big thank you to Colin Chapman for all his work on this. It is available either in hard copy or in Word document format.

Partnership Events

Prayers

CoCo has proposed that there be a scheduled period of prayers across the partnership for the Macedon Ranges Partnership and its ministers. 1st November to 14th November 2015. This will be the period leading up to the November meeting of CoCo.

Picnic

Remember our joint church event on Sunday 29th November at Stanley Park, Mount Macedon, starting at 10:30 a.m. with a church service and followed by a picnic/BBQ. If the weather is inclement it will be held at the Mount Macedon uniting church. Please BYO everything you might need for the day, chairs, food to share etc.

Safe Church

We are planning a 'Safe Church' workshop for April 9th 2016, at Riddells Creek, which you are all invited to attend. More information about this next year.

Asylum Seekers Network

The Partnership is represented in the Northern Suburbs Asylum Seeker Network, and shall work together as a group, working for the refugees.

Service Times

A proposal has been put forward to change some church service times because, at present, the service times require 6 preachers every week. This could be seen as a waste of resources. Preachers consist of ministers in placement, retired ministers and lay preachers.

The proposed plan would only require 4 preachers on a Sunday morning. 4 preachers will each do 2 services. Some preachers have indicated that they prefer to only do 1 service of a morning, which can be accommodated. If the new suggestion was implemented congregations would see a minister more often around the partnership.

A meeting of the people who are currently organizing the preaching timetables will be held on Monday 26th October at 7pm at the Woodend Manse. The preaching plan for December - February will be organised. The attendees can then return to their congregations and discuss the outcome with their church councils.

Mt Macedon Blessing of the Animals Service

The Mount Macedon congregation enjoyed the beautiful weather on the 4th October for the Blessing of the Animals Service. The service was led by Adele Mapperson the Chaplain at Lort Smith Animal Hospital. The newly paved front drive proved an excellent location. From the photos provided we note that people were blessed along with the animals but the significance of the dressed teddy was not provided.

The Earliest Saints

³He went up the mountain and called to him those whom he wanted, and they came to him. ¹⁴And he appointed twelve, whom he also named apostles, to be with him, and to be sent out to proclaim the message, ¹⁵and to have authority to cast out demons. ¹⁶So he appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter); ¹⁷James son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder); ¹⁸and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean, ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. (Mark 3:13-19 NRSV)

The Twelve Apostles

Pictured as twelve sheep or twelve shepherds. Shown with an X symbolizing that they went out into all the world - north, south, east and west.

Saint Peter

The crossed keys are usually assigned to Saint Peter because of the word of the Lord to him in Matthew 16:19. Other symbols for Saint Peter are the inverted cross; the crowing cock; and the church on a rock.

Saint James, the greater

Saint James is said to have travelled a great deal in order to preach the Gospel to many people. The scallop shell is a symbol for the traveller because he used this shell to scoop water to drink on his travels. Other emblems for Saint James are: the sword and the shell; the staff and the wallet; the staff and the hat; the staff and the sword crossed.

Saint John, the Apostle

This symbol is assigned to Saint John because an attempt was made on his life through poison put into the communion cup. Showing the serpent arising out of the chalice was the only way in which they could make you think of poison in the wine. Other emblems for Saint John are: an eagle over a cauldron; the scroll of the Gospel or Revelation; a serpent and a sword.

Saint Andrew

Saint Andrew is said to have died on a cross shaped like an "X". Since the date of the first Sunday in Advent is always the Sunday nearest to Saint Andrew's day (November 30), the cross has become the emblem of the beginning and the end of the Church Year. Other symbols for Saint Andrew are: the crossed fishes; the cross and the fish-net with a boat-hook.

Saint Philip

The cross and the two loaves are assigned to Saint Philip because of his answer to the Lord in John 6:7. Other symbols for Saint Philip are: a basket filled with bread; a spear and patriarchal cross; a cross and a carpenter's square.

Saint Bartholomew

Saint Bartholomew died by being skinned alive. He was tortured to death for the Gospel. His symbol shows his faithfulness to the word of God, while the knife reminds us of his terrible tortures. Other emblems for Saint Bartholomew are: three knives; or the branch of a fig tree.

Saint Matthew (Levi), the Apostle

Because Saint Matthew was a tax collector when Jesus called him, he has the three money bags assigned as his symbol.

Other symbols for Saint Matthew are: the money chest and the battle axe.

Saint Thomas

Saint Thomas was evidently a twin because in John 11:16 he is called "Didymus." Saint Thomas was possibly the first missionary in India. There, it is said, he built a Church with his own hands. This is symbolized by a carpenter's square. He was finally slain by the spear of a heathen priest; therefore, the spear is used in his emblem also.

Other emblems for Saint Thomas are: a spear, four arrows and a square; a spear, four arrows and three stones; three stones and a leather girdle.

Saint Jude

Saint Jude (not to be confused with Judas Iscariot whose shield is always blank) also bears the name Thaddeus or Lebbaeus. The ship is a sign of mission voyages made for Christ.

Other emblems for Saint Jude include: the inverted cross; a spear and a club; loaves and a fish.

Saint James, the minor

The saw is the symbol of Saint James Minor. Hegeppus says that Saint James was thrown from the pinnacle of the temple and then his body was sawed in pieces.

Other emblems are: three stones; a windmill.

Saint Simon

Saint Simon is also known as the "Zealot" because he evidently belonged to this group within Israel at the time of Christ. He is usually shown with a fish on a book to emphasize that he was a fisher of men through the Gospel.

Other symbols include: two oars and a battle axe; a fuller's club; a long saw and an oar crossed.

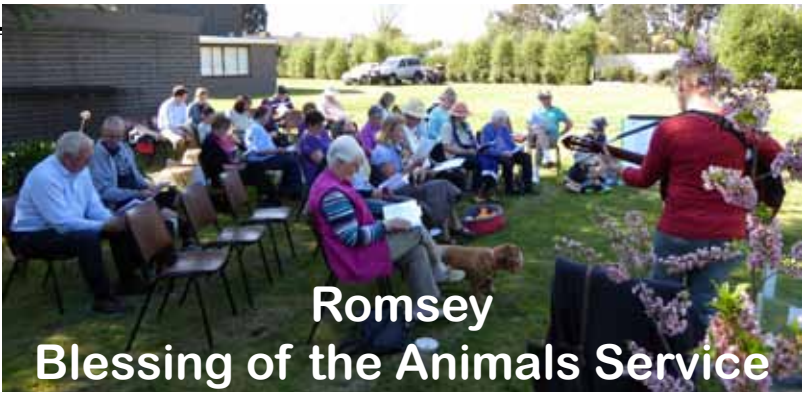

Saint Paul

Saint Paul has the sword assigned to him because he was a persecutor of the Church. The book is a symbol of his conversion into the greatest preacher of the Church. The great change in Saint Paul shows itself in this that he afterward speaks of the Word of God and the Sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17).

Romsey Blessing of the Animals Service

The weather was perfect on the first Sunday in October so the joint Romsey & Lancefield congregation, along with dogs, cats, guinea pigs, and blue tongue lizards were able to sit out in the shade in the back yard of the Romsey church. Wendy Elson joined the worship team to lead the service and Rita Vandervalk provided music with her guitar. Towards the end of the service Wendy and Jay Brooks circulated around the gathering blessing the animals present and several others represented by photos. After the service everyone was able to enjoy a sausage sizzle. Many thanks to the cooks and those who prepared the grounds.

Revelation 21:1-6a

Using the word list at the bottom of the page find all the words hidden in the grid. The words are in straight lines but can be forwards, backwards, up down and even diagonal. Once all the words have been found you will notice that there are a number of letters that have not been used. Copy down these letters row by row and you will find they spell out a phrase. This is the answer to the puzzle.

Lectionary Readings Year B

Ordinary Sundays after Pentecost

A period of time that varies in length depending on whether Easter is early or late. In this period, the Church recalls its faith in the Holy Trinity. It seeks to relate its faith as a people of God to Christ's mission in the world. It commences with Trinity Sunday and concludes with the feast of Christ the King.
